MARKET ENTRY

GERMANY IS THE GOAL. WHY NOT START THERE?

In Germany an AI adviser may not advise. Start there, and we build a product we can never test.

	BUILD	LEARN	EXPAND	ARRIVE
IF WE STARTED IN GERMANY ~~GERMANY FIRST~~	GATED ADVISER A lawyer signs every answer.	NO PROOF We never learn if the adviser sells.	STUCK Built for the strictest market. Travels badly.	COLD START No customers, no firm, no references.
WHAT WE DO INSTEAD OPEN FIRST	FULL ADVISER Sold in the Netherlands, where it may speak.	PROOF Companies pay for the software itself.	REPEAT New market, same product. Add a firm and a country pack.	GERMANY, AS AN UPGRADE Dutch customers buy the Germany pack. Same product, German rules, a German firm signs.

Germany's rule generic, rule-based tools are allowed (BGH Smartlaw, 2021). Case-specific advice stays with lawyers. bundesgerichtshof.de

MARKET ENTRY

SO WE START IN THE NETHERLANDS.

Where the adviser may speak, the deadline is live, and the proof is clean.

Software may advise · Lawyer must sign · Firm-led · Not in the analysis · Our path

LEGAL

THE ADVISER MAY SPEAK

Dutch law reserves only the lawyer's title. Software may give a company its answer. In Germany and Austria it may not.

TIMING

THE DEADLINE IS LIVE

NIS2 in force since August 2026. About 8,000 companies in scope, more than half not registered.

PROOF

COMPANIES PAY FOR SOFTWARE

No lawyer is needed to make the sale. So we learn the one thing that matters: does the adviser sell on its own.

BUSINESS MODEL

ENTER WITH NIS2. GROW WITH EVERY LAW.

One evidence graph. Every new regulation is a module, every new country a pack. The second sale costs almost nothing.

COUNTRY PACKS
Same evidence, another country's rules
from €600
a year, per country

MODULES
One law at a time
from €1,800
a year, per regulation

NIS2 · ENTRY | AI Act | Cyber Resilience Act | DORA | Data Act | more

PLATFORM
Evidence graph, adviser, GDPR included
€1,800 to 7,200
a year, by company size

Built once. Every layer above reuses it.

	TODAY, WITH LAWYER HOURS	WITH REGULIFT
First law, first country	about €9,800 40 lawyer hours, one-off.	€5,400 a year Platform plus NIS2, mid-size company.
Every new law	again €9,800 Same fact-finding again.	+ €1,800 Same evidence, new rules.
Every new country	again €9,800 New firm, new review.	+ €600 Same evidence, new country.

WHY IT MATTERS

Compliance that gets cheaper with every law and every border makes European companies more competitive.

Prices proposed. Companies pay; law firms use the workspace free, sign where the law requires it, no fee per mandate or fee share. Lawyer column illustrative: 40 hours at the German standard rate of €244 (BRAK STAR 2024, beck-aktuell.de); Dutch average €241 (Knab 2026). One NIS2 applicability opinion alone: €3,900 fixed (srd-rechtsanwaelte.de).

TEAM

WHY US.

We have met this problem at work. Now we build the way out of it.

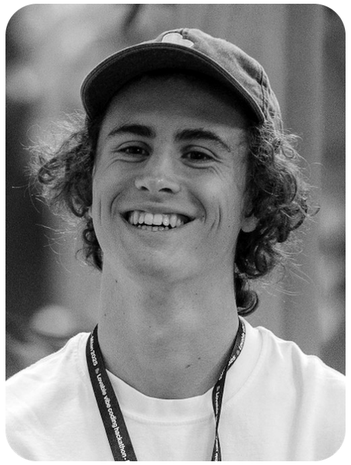

BUILDS THE PRODUCT

ANDREAS HERZINGER

Product & engineering

Builds AI integrations for companies: secure connectors, data to LLM, RAG in production. Has seen how compliance turns every integration into a legal question. The evidence graph is his craft.

BUILDS THE MARKET

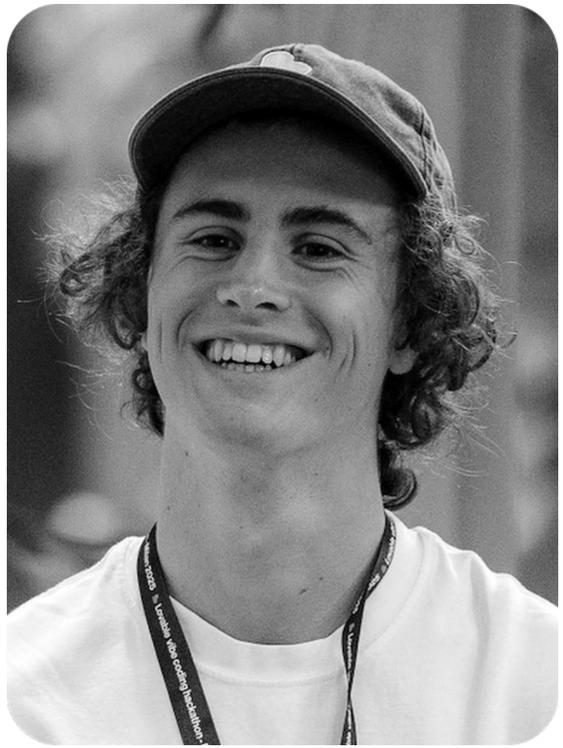

SIMONE MATTIOLI

AI & product development

Customers, partners and discovery. EIT Digital Master School. The first year is interviews, one Dutch firm and two design partners, which is his ground.

WHY WE DO IT

We are a European generation that wants to bring something forward. Cheaper compliance makes Europe's companies more competitive, and we bring the professional experience to make it happen.
